

Amare Energy+™ Apple Cider

Fuel Your Fall with our limited-edition Apple Cider flavor that has science at its core.

What It Is

Functional fuel meets comforting fall flavor in this limited-time only drink mix. Powered by plant-based ingredients, limited-edition Energy+ Apple Cider provides clean, balanced energy—keeping you sharp, steady, and ready for the office or the orchard. It won't be here long—get it before it's gone!*

Why You Need It

Healthy energy levels impact everything from how you move to how you think, to how you feel. Lack of movement, gut imbalances, inconsistent sleep, and poor diet can impact energy levels, leading to sluggish mornings, mid-day crashes, or just “blah” feelings. While a healthy lifestyle is important to keeping energy levels up, sometimes we still need an extra boost.

How it Works

We've Got Energy Down to a Science

- Matcha supports mood and aids in concentration.*
- Guayusa promotes mental energy and alertness.*
- Natural Caffeine promotes body and mind energy.*
- Pomegranate Extract contains antioxidants and flavonoids to support vitality.*

The Science

Amare’s approach to the perfectly-tuned pick-me-up is to work with your body’s natural energy rhythms—not override them. That’s why we focus on plant-based ingredients and a thoughtfully designed blend to support mind and body energy for a better boost you can feel good about.*

How to Use

Meet Your New Happy Fall Ritual

Try starting your day with Happy Juice in the morning, then a cup of limited-edition Energy+ Apple Cider—think “Happy Tea”—in the afternoon. When your energy dips, take a sip.

- Mix one stick pack with 8-10 oz water
- Enjoy hot or cold!
